

Kadou coffee

Kadou coffee is an elegant coffee table which recalls the shapes of a traditional Japanese flower composition: in fact, its name means “the art of flowers”. The top and base are in painted metal, available in seven elegant colours. The branches, which make up the legs, are placed asymmetrically with respect to the base and top; they too in painted steel. They are available in a range of colours, making it possible to give an overall note of colour or opt for a monochromatic effect. Kadou coffee is available in three versions (high, middle, low), in which the diameter of the tops and the height of the coffee table varies. A collection of informal coffee tables, ideal in the home environment and for the most varied contract uses: spaces that are open to the public, showrooms, shops, waiting rooms and even offices. Simple in its materials, but pleasantly sophisticated in its design and shape, Kadou coffee is a design product with a striking aesthetic connotation, able to furnish with style, and tell a strongly evocative story.
